PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

TOP GLOVE WORKING WITH AUTHORITIES TO IMPROVE WORKERS' ACCOMMODATIONS

Shah Alam, Friday, 27 November 2020 With regard to the visit by the Department of Labour Peninsular Malaysia (JTKSM) to its Ipoh factory workers' accommodations yesterday, we wish to inform that Top Glove will be extending its fullest cooperation to the relevant authorities.

Top Glove wishes to clarify that we are in the process of improving the living quarters of our workers, to meet the requirements of the Workers' Minimum Standards of Housing and Amenities Act 1990 (Act 446). Part of our efforts towards this for our workers in Ipoh, was the rental of eight (8) units of new shophotels. Six (6) have been occupied while another two (2) are in the process of being set up for the workers.

The exercise to move workers in is ongoing and expected to be completed by early December 2020. The exercise to further improve the workers' living conditions at Top Glove began in July 2020 this year, and is expected to be completed by next month, December 2020. Efforts to source for more accommodation and to improve existing worker accommodations are ongoing.

We understand that our workforce is the Company's greatest asset and are committed to continue working closely with the relevant authorities to make the necessary improvements towards ensuring the safety and well-being of our workers.
